

SENATOR HALL: Mr. President, I would move the E & R amendments be adopted.

SENATOR CARSTEN: All those in favor of the E & R amendments be adopted say aye. Those opposed no. They are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would move to amend the bill.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator DeCamp. Amendments to 1049.

SENATOR DECAMP: I think we agreed to pass over that, didn't we, and drop it? I dropped that amendment.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Did you withdraw yours, Senator DeCamp?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTEN: They are withdrawn. Any other amendments, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Well, Mr. President, Senator Haberman would move to amend. (The Haberman amendment appears on page 1287 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President and members of the body, I agree with the intent of LB 1049 which establishes the Commission for Special Education. And the commission is to negotiate with Iowa, Kansas, Wyoming, for interstate residential special education schools. I agree with what 1049 does. However, in 1049 it states, if the commission has not negotiated a compact with one or more such states, the Governor may dissolve the commission. Now, as you well know, we have many, many, many commissions and some of them never seem to go away, they always seem to be around. So my amendment, my amendment, the only thing it does, it says that within 12 months, now that will be 12 months after the bill goes into effect which is three months after we adjourn, so that will give them really 14 or 15 months, the Governor shall dissolve the commission. As I say, I am not fussing, fighting or arguing with the concept of 1049. The only thing I am saying is after 12 to 14 to 15 months, if the commission has not done its work, then it should be dissolved. And if the time comes that they need additional
